FRENCH BARONESS ON TRIAL FOR HER LIFE

IS A WOMAN OF MYSTERY

Madame de Massy's Only Fear Is that Newspapers Will Not Describe Her Dress Accurately--Acoused of Killing Wealthy Manufacturer.

New York, Apr. 27—Baroness Anista Louise du Vernon de Massy, a dainty Frenchwoman, has been put on trial for her life before Judge Blanchard in the criminal branch of the supreme court, and because she came from Paris instead of Pittsburg, the courtroom was only partially filled and the jury of twelve was secured in five hours.

This woman of mystery, whose remarkable toilettes since her incarceration in the Toombs have been a source of wonder to matron attendants and prisoners, is charged with the killing of Gustav Simon, a wealthy shirtwaist maker.

The people will declare that the baroness, who had done work as a designer for Simon, went to him for overdue money and, after a wordy battle, shot the man down.

Charles Le Barbier, chief counsel for the woman, will assert that on the day of the tragedy an unknown person called on Simon a moment after the baroness's call, and that this mysterious person did the killing.

No Witness to Tragedy.

The case will have to be fought out on purely circumstantial lines, for there was no witness to the tragedy.

In court the prisoner was calm, though deeply interested in the proceedings. She consulted frequently with Mr. Le Barbier and his associate counsel, John Goode, but never did she allow her interest in the proceedings to distract her attention far from her own personality.

She was the attraction in the court room, and she knew it. She was radiant in a costume that none but a French woman and a Parisian Frenchwoman at that, could have designed, and her pride in her art was so pronounced that in passing a group of newspaper men as she was being taken into court she stopped short, and looking the group calmly over, said:

"If you must write of me, don't, I pray you, make any such mistakes as were made in describing the costumes of the ladies of the Thaw case. I noted those and hoped that no such blunders would be made in my case."

Matron O'Brien and other Tombs' attendants say the Baroness is the most interesting puzzle ever locked behind the gray walls of the big prison. She has maintained from the day of her arrest the lofty airs of a noble woman. The other prisoners have been deemed too far beneath her to be rewarded by even the most casual glance. To the matron she has spoken only when prison matters made it necessary; to ohters, not at all.

This Frenchwoman has spent much time in writing, also, not a play, as many asserted, but a translation into English of a book which she says will be called in Latin "Et in Hora Mortis Nostrae."

Accused by Dying Man.

Dress-designing and literature have seemingly occupied her mind completely since that Day, November 18, when Simon was found in his office with a bullet through his lungs. After that came her arrest and the accusation by the dying man that she had held the pistol which had laid him low.

She has not talked about the crime but she has told many things about herself. Nineteen years ago, when a mere girl, she was married to the Baron de Massy. One year later he was poisoned by an enemy. The woman said that she sought for the murderer until convinced that he had fled to this country. She came here to find him. She has ever been on that trail with no success. She finally became poor, and secured employment in various places designing gowns and waists for women. It was as a designer that she went to the shirtwaist factory of Simon and she worked there for a short time. A difference of opinion brought about her discharge, but she was not paid and she demanded her money.

ROOSEVELT SOLID IN SOUTH.

Georgia, South Carolina and Florida Republicans Are for Him.

Washington, April 27.—"In the states I visited, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, the republicans are in hearty accord with the administration. They are Roosevelt men through and through," said First Assistant Postmaster General Hitchcock, upon his return from the south, where he has been on an inspection tour. Mr. Hitchcock remarked that there were a few "disgruntled and generally discredited men" who have dropped out of the old organization, but that such were in the decided minority. Mr. Hitchcock refused to give other details, except to say a few words of praise of the workings of his department in the section visited.

Must Give the Same Contract.

Montgomery, Ala., April 27.—In an opinion given out by the attorney general, it is held that insurance companies operating stock schemes must give the same contract to every policy holder or allow him the option of it, all must be treated alike and no advantage must be given one that is not granted to the other. Many of the companies have formed securities companies which are made general agents. Policy holders are given stock in these, thereby participating in a way in the commissions of the general agents. It is held that these contracts must all be the same, that every policy holder must have them if he so desires, although he may refuse them.

Jews Afraid of Easter Massacre.

St. Petersburg, April 27.—In view of the repeated telegrams from their constitutents reiterating fears of anti-Jewish excesses at the Russian Easter, which begins April 28th, a delegation of members of the lower house of Parliament called on Premier Stolypin and asked him to assure the panic-strucken population that order would be maintained. Mr. Stolypin promised to immediately telegraph to the governors instructing them to take all the measures possible for he prevention of disorder and reassure the Jewish population that no excesses would be permitted.

Downpour at New Orleans.

New Orleans, April 27.—A torrential rain flooded many sections of New Orleans Thursday. Water was more than a foot deep in parts of Canal street, where the big stores are located. During the hardest showers, shoppers and business men stood marooned on the sidewalks while their only means of reaching the street cars in the elevated center of the street was by precarious plank bridges laid by newsboys and costing 5 cents toll per passenger.

Penitentiary Reaps Harvest.

Atlanta, April 27.—Wewnesday was an unlucky day for law-breakers in the criminal division of the superior court, and as a result the Fulton county chaingang and the penitentiary reaped a goodly harvest. Out of a total of 27 cases tried, 26 were convicted, aggregating a total of 300 years which will be served in the chaingang and the penitentiary. This breaks all previous records.

Luxury Created by Storm.

Waynesboro, Ga., April 27.—The hailstorm of about ten days ago in the vicinity of McBean is still to be heard from. R. W. Knight, a reputable citizen of McBean, stated that he made ice cream, using the hailstones for ice, ten days after the terrific hailstorm. This is vouched for by other citizens of that place.

Girl is Injured by Bursting Shell.

Newark, N. J., April 27—Through the bursting of a machine gun shell in rubbish burning near where she was standing, Margaret Fields, aged 11, daughter of Commodore Fields, of the Arbuckle fleet, was badly injured by fragments.

PRICE OF COTTON TIES IS ADVANCED

TEN CENTS PER BUNDLE ADDED

This Year the Farmer Must Pay 95 Cents a Bundle, as Compared with that of 85 Cents, the Price Asked Last Year.

Pittsburg, Pa., April 27.—The cotton tie market was opened Thursday by the United States Steel corporation and prices advanced 10 cents a bundle. There are 2,500,000 bundles of cotton ties ready for shipment from this city to the south. Last year the price per bundle was 85 cents. The advance, which affects the entire southern cotton growing communities, came as a surprise. It is estimated by the steel corporation that he coton crop will be 20 per cent larger than that of last year.

Thought Dead, but Still Lives.

Piqua, Ohio, April 27.—Six months ago a dispatch said that W. M. Ormsbee, at one time a prominent theatrical manager in this city and Springfield, had died in Los Angeles, Cal., and the dispatches apparently confirmed locally, and abituary notices and photographs were published in the newspapers of Piqua and Springfield. Letters have just been received from Ormsbee, who had just learned of the premature announcement of his death. He says he is not dead yet, but is in California enjoying the best of health.

Fitzgerald Killed Opp.

Friars Point, Miss., April 27.—Gerald Fitzgerald, a promising young lawyer, shot and killed W. F. Opp, the proprietor of a billiard hall. The men had had some words several days ago and met about noon in the store of W. D. Hobbs. Both drew revolvers, it is said,. Fitzgerald shot himself in the right leg, but is not dangerously wounded. He then killed Opp. Another bullet from Fitzgerald's revolver struck his brother-in-law, Ben Booth, in the left hand.

Drowned While Fording River.

Huntsville, Ala., April 27.—John H. Cobb, a well known farmer, and Jim Holman, a negro boy, were drowned while trying to ford the Paint Rock river. Two mules were also drowned. The river was deeper than usual at the ford, and the mules were swept away by the current, the wagon being overturned. Harvey Moon and Henry Mapples, negroes, were also in the wagon, but they succeeded in swimming to the bank. The shock may kill Cobb's wife.

Change Date of Meeting.

Tifton, Ga., April 27.—The May meeting of the Georgia-Florida Interstate Saw Mill association, which was to have been held at Tifton, at the Myon, on Wednesday, May 8, has been changed to Monday, May 6, on account of the annual meeting of the Georgia Retail Hardware Dealers' association, which will be held in Tifton on May 7, 8 and 9, and with which the saw mill men do not wish to conflict.

Switchmen Strike at Athens.

Athens, Ga., April 27.—The switchmen on the Central of Georgia railway are on a strike and are asking for an increase of 35 cents a day. When this demand was denied, the ten men at work in the yards all quit work. The switchmen believe their demands will be granted and expect to go to work at an early date.

Crisp Lays Cornerstone.

Cordele, Ga., April 27.—The cornerstone of Crisp county's magnificent new court house was laid Thursday with Masonic honors in the presence of an immense concourse of people.

Vacancy in the Immortals.

Paris, April 27.—Andre Theuriet, the novelist, is dead. He was born in 1833 and was elected a member of the Academy in 1896.

AFTER THE LIQUOR PEOPLE.

Kansas Officials Declare Prohibition Will Be Enforced.

Topeka, Kans., April 27.—Attorney General Jackson, by securing an injunction against nine foreign brewing companies to prevent their owning property and operating saloons and in obtaining an order for the appointment of receivers for the brewers' property, has taken the most effective measure ever invoked to enforce the prohibitory law in Kansas. He intends to push his crusade to an active conclusion and in an interview said:

"When the receiver is named he will proceed to locate and take under his control all property of the defendants found in the state, and will thus be able to state every place where the defendants are in any way carrying on business in Kansas. Any attempt to conceal the sale of liquors will place the defendants and all their participating agents in any place of the state in contempt of the supreme court.

"The property will be sold, and out of the proceeds the court will pay all costs and damages due the state. If it is necessary to send the militia to enforce the order, the defendants will pay the bill. It will not be necessary to do this, however. The brewers' property in Kansas consists of warehouses and saloon fixtures valued at many thousands of dollars."

Southern Inventors Granted Patents.

Washington, April 27.—R. W. Bishop, patent attorney, reports the issue of the following patents to residents of Alabama and Georgia: Apparatus for cleaning ships, C. E. Arnold, Brunswick, Ga.; waterline boiler, J. F. Senter, Birmingham, Ala., assignor of one-half to the Welsh and Weidner Boiler company, Chattanooga, Tenn.; hay press, T. E. and S. R. Sykes, Helena, Ga.; check handling device, Max Joseph, Athens Ga.

Victoria Keeps Queenly Duties.

Madrid, April 27.—The remarkable manner in which Queen Vitoria maintains her strength is the subject of considerable comment. King Alfonso presided at the swearing in of the recruits, and Queen Victoria, who was accompanied by the dowager queen, Maria Christina, was present in a carriage at the saluting point, to witness the march past of the troops, which marked the close of the day's ceremony.

Fatal Quarrel Over Debt.

Doerun, Ga., April 27.—Brad Fussell shot and killed J. M. Thomas Wednesday in the dining room of the hotel at Doerun. The difficulty, it is said, arose about some money that Thomas owed Fussel. Fussell claims self-defense. There were no witnesses to the tragedy. Both parties were prominent men. Mr. Thomas was superintendent of the Corbett Lumber company at Ticknor.

Is Ryan After U. S. Senatorship?

New York, April 27.—The growing belief that Thomas F. Ryan is after a United States senatorship is being strengthened by his recent activity in the state politics in Virginia. For many years, Mr. Ryan has maintained a residence at Oak Ridge, Nelson county, sufficient to give him a high political rating. He has long been a member of the executive committee in the Virginia democratic party.

Called from Prayer and Shot.

Lexington, Ky., April 27.—William Bowen, of Martin county, a wealthy farmer, was called to the door of his home and shot through the brain. GREAT JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION OPENED

Navies of the World Drop Their Anchors at Norfolk.

PRESIDENT OPENED EXERCISES

Norfolk, Va., April 27.—Norfolk is the world's goal today (Friday). Instead of being a mere port, it is an over-populated city into which travelers come every hour. The navies of the earth are dropping their anchors in its port. Along its narrow streets the tongues of all parts of the globe are heard. And beneath the whispering pines and ancestral oaks on the low-lying shores of Hampton Roads people by the thousands hurried in every conveyance possible, from electric cars to old wagons, to view the buildings and grounds of the exposition that was opened by the president of the United States Friday.

At sunrise the Norofik Light Infantry Blues fired a salute of three hundred guns to usher in the commencement of the day opening the exposition at Jamestown.

Upon the arrival of President Roosevelt on the Mayflower in Hampton Roads a salute was fired by the United States and foreign warships there assembled. When the president arrived at the exposition ground he was met at the end of the government pier by a military escort and saluted by the United States artillery, stationed on the exposition grounds. At 11:30 o'clock the president was escorted to the reviewing stand. The order of the opening exercises was:

Prayer by the Rt. Rev. Alfred Magill Randolph, bishop of the diocese of southern Virginia; introduction of the president of the United States by Hon. Harry St. George Tucker, president of the Jamestown Exposition company; address by President Theodore Roosevelt; opening of the exposition by the president of the United States.

When the president pressed the gold button it was at the same time a signal for the unfurling of more than 1,000 flags on the various buildings of the exposition, and also a salute from the union by the United States and foreign ships assembled in Hampton Roads, and by the garrison at Fort Monroe.

Immediately thereafter the president reviewed the parade, of which Major General Frederick D. Grant, of the United States army, was grand marshal.

The great naval display in the harbor in full view of the magnificent boulevard that stretches between the state buildings and the harbor the length of the grounds; the military pageant on the parade griund and the president's speech were the principal features of the opening day.

From 5 to 6 p. m. a reception was tendered the president by the officers and directors of the exposition company in the rotunda of the Auditorium building.

Dowling, while playing around at the new theater building which is now in course of completion, fell from the first floor, breaking his jawbone and receiving other injuries, but which will not prove fatal. He is expected to be out in a few weeks.

NEW TRAIN WILL BE INAUGURATED

FROM OCALA TO JACKSONVILLE

And Return, via Gainesville, Daily. Strictly Passenger and Express Service—Will Prove Great Convenience to the Traveling Public.

It is rumored, and the railroad officials have not taken the trouble to deny the rumor, that on or about May 1 the Atlantic Coast Line proposes to give patrons of its line between Ocala and Jacksonville a superior as well as more convenient service, which will enable people of this section to go to Jacksonville, spend the day and return home in the evening.

It is understood that a new first-class train, which will carry passengers and express only, will be inaugurated between Ocala and Jacksonville, via Gainesville, making a round trip a day. The train will leave Ocala about 5:45 a. m., Gainesville 7:30, arriving at Jacksonville about 11 o'clock. Returning, leave Jacksonville about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, reaching Gainesville at 8:30 and Ocala about 10 o'clock.

This service has been contemplated for a long time, but for some reason or another has never been inaugurated. It is said to be a certainty now, however, and that the next time-card will contain the train.

This train will prove of great benefit to the people of Ocala, Gainesville and intermediate points. Heretofore it has been impossible for people residing in the territory mentioned to visit Jacksonville and return the same day via the Atlantic Coast Line. It is true that in the Cedar Key-Jacksonville train, the Seaboard has given the people of this city an excellent service, which is appreciated, but this fact was no relief to the people along the route of the proposed new train.

A life-sized portrait of the late J. R. W. Grissome, who died at the home of his son, W. F. Grissome, Rochelle, a few nights ago, attracted a large number of people Friday. Through the courtesy of the owner of the portrait, Jas. F. Smith, the artist, it was displayed in a window at the store of Hyde & Tench. ROCKY POINT SCHOOL.

Closed Friday With Picnic, After a Most Successful Term.

After a most successful term under direction of Miss Ada Philpot, the Rocky Point school closed Friday with a most enjoyable picnic, which was largely attended, many visitors from Gainesville, including Mrs. J. L. Kelley, being present. An elegant dinner which had been temptingly prepared by the good ladies of that section, was prepared at the noon hour, and it is needless to add was greatly enjoyed.

In the afternoon there was an exciting game of base ball between the Rocky Point and Gainesville boys, juniors, resulting in the close score of 11 to 10 in favor of the Rocky Points, after playing eleven innings. The Gainesville boys behaved finely, and the people of Rocky Point were delighted to have them. The game was a most exciting one, as it was impossible to determine where the victory would fall until the last inning.

This school year has been a pleasant one, and the children have made excellent progress under the careful and efficient training of Miss Philpot. The patrons of the school are very anxious for her return next term.

ONE RESOLUTION A LOST MEASURE

Was Snowed Under Beautifully by House Friday.

BOARDS WERE WELL PLAYED

That the Resolution Did Not Have Sufficient Friends to Perfect Its Passage. Other Interesting News from the Lower House.

The Senate was not in session Friday, that body, on motion of Senator Broome, having adjourned over until Saturday morning in honor of Memorial Day.

The House held a session nearly an hour shorter than usual, in order to give time for the decoration of the hall which, on account of inclement weather, was to be used for Memorial Day exercises, beginning at 5 in the afternoon.

The final defeat of the resolution providing for joint committee to visit Lake City and former university property and make a report thereon, closed a rather long battle, that together with preliminary skirmishes incident thereto, has occupied a good deal of time and attention of both branches of this Legislature.

The effort to reconsider the vote by which the bill providing for teachers' summer training schools, was passed, was likewise unsuccessful, the House going so far as to not only pass the House bill covering the proposition, but the companion bill from the Senate as well.

Most of the members of the Legislature attended the memorial exercises in honor of the Confederate dead in the afternoon. The principal address was delivered by Justice Parkhill, of the supreme court.

PROCEEDINGS OF HOUSE.

The session of the House was an hour shorter than usual, owing to the exercises of Memorial Day, which were held in tne room beginning at 4 o'clock.

The following were among the new bills presented:

By Mr. Doke of Alachua—New charter for city of Alachua, Fla.

By Mr. Doke of Alachua—Appropriating $24,025.49 to reimburse certain counties for armory rent.

Fifteen minutes after convening the House took up the select order of the day, and Mr. Kirkland of Lake moved reconsideration of the vote by which House bill No. 20 was passed Thursday. Mr. Kirkland said he wanted it distinctly understood he was in favor of giving the teachers of the State all reasonable assistance but read from the report of the State superintendent Public Instruction to show that the State normals were patronized very largely by the counties where the schools are located only, and though the normal course at the University of Florida and female colleges were sufficient.

Mr. Matthews of Marion contended that the establishment of the two State normals would be local rather than general, and he would prefer that each county be given $200 to conduct a normal for one month. Mr. Howell of Santa Rosa said he had changed his mind since Thursday, and hoped the bill would not be reconsidered. He announced that at the proper time he would introduce a bill to appropriate a sum to pay the actual traveling expenses of the teachers to the State normals.

Mr. Dudley of Hillsboro, chairman of the committee on education, contended that under the Buckman law it was impossible to locate the normals anywhere except at Tallahassee and Gainesville. It required an entire year to complete the course in the two State colleges.

Mr. DuPont opposed reconsideration, and Mr. Knight of Citrus agreed with Mr. Howell. The main question was put and the motion to reconsider was lost.

Senate Messages.

The messages were received from the Senate, and the Senate bills were referred to the proper committees.

Senate bill No. 272, creating a county court for Lafayette county, was passed under waiver of rules, yeas 81, nays 4.

Mr. Wilson of Hernando, moved a waiver of rules, and that Senate bill No. 221, requiring teachers' summer training schools, a companion bill to House bill No. 80, be passed without being placed on the calendar. Agreed to, and on final passage the bill received 33 affirmative and 12 negative votes. It will now go to the Governor for his signature. And House bill No. 89 will die a natural death. The bills are identical.

Cone Resolution Lost.

Under the bills on third reading was the famous Cone resolution, providing the appointment of a committee to visit and investigate the former University building at Lake City and report was brought up, creating a warm controversy both for and against the passage of the resolution.

Mr. Knight of Columbia moved to substitute House concurrent resolution No. 10, by Mr. Cone, for House concurrent resolution No. 17, by Mr. Rowe of Madison, both relating to an inspection of the University property at Lake City.

The motion received 20 ayes and 28 nays on the roll call, and was declared lost. The question then recurred to the adoption of House concurrent resolution No.17. Mr. Rowe moved the adoption of the resolution.

Mr. Matthews of Marion made a poetic comparison of the asassination of Caesar with the resolution. Mr. Rowe raised a point of order which was not sustained. Mr. Matthews warmly commended the Buckman law, and opposed any move looking toward the re-establishment of any of the deceased State colleges. Mr. Willis of Gadsden couldn't see any harm in investigating the State's property. Mr. Wells of Leon read the report of the State Board of Education upon the matter, and thought if this board could not get $15,000 for the property, and if the board had the right to dispose of the property it would not be necessary to investigate.

Mr. Wartmann of Marion vigorously opposed the resolution and thought the Legislature should sustain the action of the Board of Education and the Board of Control.

Mr. Knight of Columbia said the Legislature was investigating everything from Key West to Pensacola and when the session convened the gentleman of Marion was in the forefront of them who wanted stenographers and attorneys and accountants and everything else under the sun to investigate the State officials in whom he has now such great confidence. Some people seemed to think the great Buckman law had been enacted into the constitution of Florida. The resolution meant simply that the people of Lake City were offering the property, which was offered to them in return for the $15,000 given by Lake City to the university, to people of Florida who erected the buildings for what use might be made of them.

The loss of the university was not nearly so great to the people of Lake City as to the people of Florida. He had lived in eight miles of Lake City for twenty-one years and warmly defended the moral atmosphere of Lake City, and that the man who says the school had to be moved on account of the moral atmosphere of Lake City, is a "malicious prevaricator." He reviewed the history of the university and claimed the State was under a "moral contract" to maintain the college at Lake City, and that suits brought by the people of Lake City were in the interests of the citizens of Florida.

Mr. Wilson of Hernando could see but one motive in the resolution, the driving of the thin edge of the wedge, and engaged in a colloquy with Mr. Knight.

Mr. Bradshaw of Hamilton opposed the resolution.

The main question was put, and the chair declared it lost. Mr. Knight demanded a roll call, which was not sustained. Amid some confusion, the speaker called the special order. Motion of Mr. Rowe that special order be deferred was carried, and the House took up Senate concurrent resolution No. 10, identical with the House resolution just voted down. Mr. Knight of Columbia moved the adoption of the resolution. Mr. Howell of Santa Rosa moved to indefinitely postpone the resolution. Roll call was demanded, and the motion was carried by a vote of yeas 31, nays 17.

After some other business under special order, the House adjourned until 9 a. m. Saturday.

A VALUABLE PRESCRIPTION.

The average person does not realize how much the bodily health depends upon the proper action of the kidneys and bladder, nor how widespread disorders of those organs are. It is quite safe to say that they give physicians as many sleepless nights on account of their patients as do any of the others, and perhaps it would not be too much to say that, directly and indirectly, they are chargeable with as much sickness as all the other organs of the human body combined. As a result of a vast amount of careful study, many physicians are now using with great success in the treatment of disorders traceable to the kidneys and bladder a prescription composed of ¼ oz. Fluid Extract of Buchu, ¼ oz. Fluid Extract of Uva Ursi, 1 oz. Amet Cordial, ¼ oz. Fluid Extract of Liverwort and 15 ozs. water. This is administered in doses of a tablespoonful three times a day and while the treatment is continued, which in order that all impurities may be eliminated from the system, should be for a month, the patient is advised to drink large quantities of water. The materials called for by the prescription are carried in stock by every first-class pharmacy.

Refuses To Be Reconciled.

Geneva, April 27.—Herr Woelfing, who at one time was Archduke Leopold of Austria, and his wife, from whom he is seeking a divorce, appeared in court here for the usual attempt at reconciliation prior to securing the decree. Both parties declined to resume relations, the former Archduke declaring he was tired of vegetarianism, the fantastic dress and the other fads of his wife. The case consequently will take its ordinary course. Herr Woelfing gave up his position, expectations and honors as an Austrian archduke some four years ago in order to marry Wilhelmine Adamovich, the actress, in Vienna.

New Line to Coast.

Hawkinsville, Ga., April 27.—Hawkinsville is soon to become the northern terminus of the Gulf Air Line railroad. It is currently stated that the Hawkinsville and Florida Southern road, which has been running several years from Hawkinsville to Worth, will merge into a new combination, and will go on south through Ashburn, Sylvester and Brideboro. Thence it will be extended to Bainbridge, where it will connect with lines having several gulf ports.

To Augusta, Ga.

Daily Pullman buffet sleeping car leaves Jacksonville, Fla., at 8:05 p. m., via Atlantic Coast Line and arrives Augusta the next morning at 7:40 a. m. For Pullman reservations see the Atlantic Coast Line agents or write to Frank C. Boylston, District Passenger Agent, Atlantic Coast Line, Jacksonville, Fla.

SPECIAL OCCASION.

On account of the above occasion we announce round-trip rate of one fare, plus twenty-five cents in the sale of tickets to Richmond, Va., tickets at this rate being on sale from May 13th until 16th inclusive, with final limit to leave Richmond fifteen days from date of sale. However, by complying with certain conditions and upon payment of fee of $1.00, an extension of this limit to June 17th may be procured.

The Seaboard has been declared the Official Route for delegates to this meeting. Those having the matter in hand were evidently guided in reaching the decision to name the line by some of the attractive features of the service, noticeable among these being the double daily service with through coaches and sleeping cars and then the following: Our people, with an idea of affording delegates to this and other conventions held in Richmond, an opportunity for visiting the Jamestown Exposition, perfected an arrangement whereby the return portion of tickets reading from Richmond are honored from Portsmouth, Virginia, without additional charge. This alone certainly makes the Seaboard especially attractive.

There is a movement now on foot to have the Florida Baptists assemble in Jacksonville, moving from there on the same train—one might say in a body. This, too, will make the trip more pleasant.

EUREKA!

Yes, I Have Found It At Last.

Found what? Why, that Chamberlain's Salve cures eczema and all manner of itching of the skin. I have been afflicted for many years with skin disease. I had to get up three or four times every night and wash with cold water to allay the terrible itching, but since using this salve in December, 1905, the itching has stopped and has not troubled me.—ELDER JOHN T. Thought to Have Been Murdered.

Jackson, Miss., April 27—A white man named Diehle, who was found at Siegers switch, 5 miles from this city, with his skull crushed Monday, has since died at the hospital here. It was at first supposed he had been killed by a train, but the police now believe that he was murdered. He was known to have had a large sum of money Sunday, having been paid off at a railroad camp where he worked. An investigation is being made by the police.

She Arrives to Find Lover Dead.

Raleigh, N. C., April 27.—Miss Thelma Lindgren, of St. Paul, Minn., who was to have been married here Saturday to Captain Hans Thorson, arrived only to learn of her intended husband's death by drowning at Buck Head Falls, N. C., when, with three others he was swept over the falls. A telegram sent had failed to reach her. The bodies of the four drowned persons have not yet been recovered.

A Woman Tells How to Relieve Rheumatic Pains.

I have been a great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism, for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them until two years ago, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I found relief before I had used all of one bottle, but kept on applying it and soon felt like a different woman. Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderfully it has worked.—MRS. SARAH A. COLE, 140 S. New St., Dover, Del. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes rest and sleep possible. For sale by all druggists.

STATE REPUBLICANS WANT ROOSEVELT

Will Endorse His Candidacy for Re-nomination for President.

HON. H. S. CHUBB TALKS

Declares Press Reports to Effect That Florida Delegation Would Stand for Nomination of Secretary Taft Wrong—Praise for the President.

Apropos the recent visit of Hon. Mr. Hitchcock to this State, and his conference with many of the leading Republicans in Florida, among whom was Hon. Henry S. Chubb, receiver of the United States land office in this city, and chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, the correspondent called upon Mr. Chubb relative to the statement made through the press that at a recent meeting of the leading Republicans it was agreed to stand by Secretary Taft for the Presidency at the next national convention.

The correspondent found Mr. Chubb comfortably seated at a desk in his private office looking over some papers, and when the nature of the visit was explained he expressed a willingness to give an interview which would set the matter correctly before the people of the country.

"I note by press reports that the Republican leaders of the State held a meeting in Jacksonville recently, at which it was agreed that the Florida delegation in the next Republican National Convention would support Secretary Taft for President." ventured the reporter.

"That statement was absolutely incorrect," promptly replied Mr. Chubb. "The reporter was either misinformed, or was indulging in romance. The Republicans of Florida are unanimously and enthusiastic for the renomination of President Roosevelt, and are now considering no other candidate, as he is recognized as the greatest President who ever occupied the White House."

"But has not the present occupant of the White House stated that he is not, and will not be a candidate?"

"Yes, that is correct, and the President is an honest, conscientious man, and meant every word he said, in his statement on election night. But the Republican party and the American people demand a President for the next four years, commencing March 4th, 1909, who has the courage and the great ability necessary to complete the Panama Canal, strengthen the rate bill, enforce the pure food law and regulate trusts and gigantic corporations, and it is now fully realized, not only by Republicans, but by a large army of Democrats, that there is no man in America so fully able and so thoroughly equipped, and with such a high sense of patriotism, to complete this work, as Theodore Roosevelt, and the American people, and the Republican party, are going to ask President Roosevelt, with great unanimity, to modify his determination and accept the Presidency for another four years. And under such conditions I believe that President Roosevelt will eventually yield to the wishes of the people, which means that the Republic will enjoy four more years of great national prosperity.

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

Attention is called to the advertisement of The G. W. Hyde Company, which firm is offering a seven-day feast of bargains for the coming week. Those desiring goods in this line will do well to call and inspect the same.

All members of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union are cordially invited to attend a mother's meeting at the residence of Mrs. W. F. Yocum, on East Main street North, Monday afternoon, at half-past three o'clock.

Among the traveling men spending Sunday in this city is J. A. Alexander of Atlanta, Ga., representing the New Home Sewing Machine Company. Mr. Alexander succeeds J. B. Gerald, formerly of this city, but who is now engaged in business in Tampa.

The interior of the offices of Dr. J. Harrison Hodges, Dutton building, are being materially improved in appearance by an application of wall paper of the latest pattern. The offices have also been connected by door, which will prove very convenient.

I will buy from you or sell for you, at private sale or auction, any household or kitchen furniture, or anything else you wish disposed of. During my 30 years' experience in this business I've never had one complaint of not having given satisfaction. P. M. Oliver.

There are growing in the yard of Col. E. C. F. Sanchez, East Main street, a number of royal palm trees, which are probably the only trees of this variety in this section of the State. They are very handsome, and attract the attention of every visitor who happens to pass that way.

T. M. Venable, as is his annual custom, came from his home at Arredondo Friday to attend the exercises of Memorial day. He is a veteran, a member of Stonewall Camp, U. C. V., and proudly wears his cross of honor on his uniform of Confederate gray. "Uncle Tom," as he is familiarly called by his friends, was greatly disappointed at the lateness of the hour at which the exercises began, as he was compelled to return to his home before the hour arrived. He stated that a number who came from Archer were compelled to do the same.

Was United In Holy Bonds of Matrimony to Miss Mary Crosby in Ocala.

The numerous friends of S. V. Duke of this city will probably be surprised to learn of his marriage, which occurred in Ocala Wednesday afternoon. He was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Mary Crosby, formerly of Micanopy but later of Dunnellon, Rev. Dr. Dodge of the Ocala Presbyterian church officiating.

Mr. Duke is well known in this section, where he has resided for many years. The bride is also well known here, having attended East Florida Seminary, where she made many friends. She was also an attendant of the normal school here.

Mr. and Mrs. Duke arrived in the city Friday afternoon, and will make their home at Mr. Duke's elegant cottage, East Union street. Friends extend congratulations.

Wedding at High Springs.

Married, at the residence of Rev. Mr. Yates, High Springs, Friday afternoon, Herman Ernest Hirt of Charleston, son of the late Dr. E. R. Hirt, and Miss Susie Arabelle Bullard of High Springs.

The groom is a popular young man in the employ of the Seaboard Air Line, acting in the capacity of general yardmaster, and the bride is a lovely young lady, formerly of Savannah. They spent Friday night here, leaving in the morning for Jacksonville. After remaining there for a few days they will make their departure for the Jamestown Exposition, visiting friends en route at Columbia, Charlotte, Greensboro and Richmond.

Cured of Rheumatism.

Mr. Wm. Henry of Chattanooga, Tenn., had rheumatism in his left arm. "The strength seemed to have gone out of the muscles so that it was useless for work," he says. "I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and wrapped the arm in flannel at night, and to my relief I found that the pain gradually left me and the strength returned. In three weeks the rheumatism had disappeared and has not since returned." If troubled with rheumatism try a few applications of Pain Balm. You are certain to be pleased with the relief which it affords. For sale by all druggists.

Senator Foraker's speeches in Ohio so far have been chiefly remarkable for the things they have left unsaid.

Baron Rothschild has just presented King Edward with 1,000 cigars. And nameless Count Boni is thinking how much good that would have done him in his recent election struggle.

One hundred miles an hour is the speed which an electric train attained on a trial run on the New York, New Haven & Hartford road last week. The speed is indeed wonderful.

What a proposition is that of the governor to prohibit editors from lying. Why don't he include the lawyers? They have the editors beaten a mile at finish and nobody blames them.—Punta Gorda Herald.

There are not enough newspaper men in the United States to save the office's devil in the anti-child labor law as amended by Senator McCreary. Mississippi got the skidoo vote by a big majority. If the bill finally passes no child under fourteen can work in cotton factories or anything of the kind, and the newsboy who wakes up early in the morning with his "extra" must be above that age—Fort Pierce News.

There is no such thing as tainted money. Money is to buy the food, the clothes, the comforts, and the conveniences of human life. It is a medium of commerce amongst honest and dishonest people. There are tainted dollars by the stacks of them, but no tainted dollars. The moment a dollar passes into the hands of an honest man, it takes on the character of the man who has it, and not the one who had it. The only sort of tainted money we know of is the sort that tain't.

Senator Kankin declares truly that defeat is not always defeat. It is often our largest success. It is well for us and the world that many of our plans and schemes come to naught. Out of the wreck of our fondly cherished plans come many of the most brilliant victories for humanity. Our understanding often go astray and fortune seems to desert us, but it is our province to resign ourselves to the changed conditions and press forward toward the goal.

Plans are continually being made to further immigration to the South, and one of the latest has been laid before the Secretary for Commerce and Labor by Chas. Allen of Evansville, Ind. Mr. Allen is a large landholder in the South and he wants to import a lot of foreign farm laborers with the understanding that they shall work his plantation on shares. The scheme is legitimate enough and if it could be followed there are doubtless many other Southern planters who would be glad to make contracts and want to have their farms worked on the same conditions. But it looks as though the alien contract labor law would be in the way of this scheme and the matter, after being considered by Immigration Commissioner Frank Sargent, has been laid over to be referred to Secretary Metcalf.

THE TIMBER SUPPLY.

Every person in the United States is using over six times as much wood as he would use if he were in Europe. The country as a whole consumes every year between three and four times more wood than all of the forests of the United States grows in the meantime. The average acre of forest lays up a store of only 10 cubic feet annually, whereas it ought to be laying up at least 30 cubic feet in order to furnish the products taken out of it. Since 1880 more than 700,000,000,000 feet of coniferous timber in excess of the total coniferous stumpage estimate of the Census in 1880.

These are some of the remarkable statements made in Circular 97 of the Forest Service, which deals with the timber supply of the United States and reviews the stumpage estimates made by all the important authorities. A study of the circular must lead directly to the conclusion that the rate at which forest products in the United States have been and are being consumed is far too lavish, and that only one result can follow unless steps are promptly taken to prevent waste in use and to increase the growth rate of every acre of forest in the United States. This result is a timber famine. This country is today in the same position with regard to forest resources as was Germany 150 years ago. During this period of 150 years such German States as Saxony and Prussia, particularly the latter, have applied a policy of government control and regulation which has immensely increased the productivity of their forests. The same policy will achieve even better results in the United States, because we have the advantage of all the lessons which Europe has learned and paid for in the course of a century of theory and practice.

Lest it might be assumed that the rapid and gaining depletion of American forest resources is sufficiently accounted for by the increase of population, it is pointed out in the circular that the increase in population since 1880 is barely more than half the increase in lumber cut in the same period. Two areas supplying timber have already reached and passed their maximum production—the Northeastern States in 1870 and the Lake States in 1890. Today the Southern States, which cut yellow pine amounting to one-third the total annual lumber cut of the country, are undoubtedly near their maximum. The Pacific States will soon take the ascendency. The State of Washington within a few years has come to the front and now ranks first of all individual States in volume of cut.

At present but one-fifth of the total forest area of the United States is embraced in National Forests. The remaining four-fifths have already passed or are most likely to pass into private hands. The average of the trees felled for lumber this year is not less than 150 years. In other words, if he is to secure a second crop of trees of the same size, the lumberman or private forest owner must wait, say, at least one hundred years for the second crop to grow. As a rule, such long-time investments as this waiting would involve do not commend themselves to business men who are accustomed to quick returns. But the States and the Nation can look much farther ahead. The larger, then, the area of National and State control over woodlands, the greater is the likelihood that the forests of the country will be kept permanently productive.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. It almost trenches on the ridiculous to think of the railroads favoring government valuation of their properties. But it seems that it is what they are coming to. Roosevelt luck again. This is the third if not the fourth time that the railroads have changed base and come to favor the policies that the President proposed after first declaring that they were ruinous radicalism. This change of heart is very simple and easily explained. When the President first proposed actual valuation of the railroad properties, the roads were afraid it would depress the paper value of their securities—in other words, squeeze out some of the water. Now the question of water in railroad stocks is relative. Some of the securities are heavily watered, and that there is no denying. Others are watered compared to what they originally cost the roads, that is to say, land values have increased till the roads are good for a much heavier valuation than when they were first built. But the scheme for federal valuation aims not so much at scaling down the price at which the roads now value themselves as to fix a fair valuation and prevent the injection of a larger and more unreasonable amount of water. There is some assurance that this valuation would be on a fairly equitable basis, and the railroads were opposed to it till they found that the State Legislatures were going ahead on their own account and making valuations of the railroads within their borders. Four States have already done this, and six more are preparing to do so. This scared out the railroad managers, and they are now saying that one federal valuation will be a lesser evil than 45 State valuations. So they have switched to the President's plan again. And perhaps he is smiling quietly, but if so he is not saying much about it.

TRIBUTE TO WEARERS OF GRAY

Memorial Day Appropriately Observed in Georgia.

Atlanta, April 27.—To the strains of martial music and the rattle of the drum corps, the old veterans marched in the memorial parade Friday.

Civic and military organizations vied with each other in doing honor to the old heroes—many of whose steps are now faltering and halting—the lustre of whose lives makes many a bright and immortal page in history.

The school children, over a thousand strong—with bright and sunny faces—came to add joyousness and youth to the inspiring scene.

Labor—the sinew of the land—joined in the pageant, and paid a loyal tribute to the memory of the dead, while the veterans of the Spanish-American war added their mite of respect.

The fair daughters of the southland—the Daughters of the Confederacy—joined in the tribute, and when Grand Marshal Joseph F. Burke and Captain Orville H. Hull, the chief of staff, gave the command to march, the most resplendent and magnificent Memorial day parade Atlanta has ever seen was witnessed by the thousands who lined the streets along the line of march.

The day was appropriately observed in other cities of the State.

ACRES OF SWIRLING FLAMES.

Big Plant at Springfield, Ohio, Burns To the Ground.

Springfield, Ohio, April 27.—The plant of the Indianapolis Frog and Switch company has been totally destroyed by fire. The loss will reach $300,000. The alarm was turned in and when the fire department arrived the roof was falling in, and the interior was a fiery furnace. The building was a one-story, brick structure, with a floor space covering more than three acres.

The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed to have started by spontaneous combustion, or a forge in the rear.

N. H. Fairbanks, a brother of Vice President Fairbanks, is the president of the company. He states that the company had $200,000 worth of stock on hand and about $100,000 worth of machinery in the plant. The building was valued at $40,000. The company carried $12,500 insurance on the building and $35,000 on the stock.

Methodists Plan to Raise $250,000.

Atlanta, April 27.—At an enthusiastic meeting of prominent Methodists of the city held in the Wesley Memorial Tabernacle, on Ivy street, the central committee of one hunudred, which will have charge of the subscriptions for erecting the new Wesley Memorial church and hospital, was made public. The committee consists of the most prominent business men in the city, and the interest manifested at the meeting Wednesday afternoon indicated that the committee will bend every energy toward accomplishing the purpose for which it was named, the raising of $250,000 for building one of the greatest religious institutions in the state.

Accident to German Prince.

Berlin, April 27.—Prince Eitel Frederich, Emperor William's second son, fell from his horse during a cavalry drill Wednesday afternoon. Alarming reports were spread here regarding his condition, but a telephone message from Potsdam said there was no cause for fear of serious results.

Wind Hurls Barn Upon Train.

Lexington, Ky., April 27.—While the Chesapeake and Ohio freight No. 72 was running into this city, a wind storm struck a big tobacco barn near the track and hurled it toward the moving train. Engineer Scannon saw the peril, and, pulling the lever wide open, tried to outrace the barn. He was too late, however, and the big structure struck the eleventh car, tearing a big hole in its side and almost derailing the train. The barn was demolished and traffic delayed for hours.

Depot Burned to Conceal Crime.

Elberton, Ga., April 25.—Sunday morning the depot and two loaded freight cars of the Seaboard were destroyed by fire at Middleton. It is supposed to have been caused by burglars to hide their crime. Several times recently the depot has been entered, but in most instances only whisky was taken out.

LANDING A BIG FISH,

PLUCK OF A FINNY FIGHTER.

In the Duel Between the Angler and Battling Beauty There Is No Lull In the Fierce Conflict Till One or the Other Is Victorious.

The boatman is telling us of certain catches he has seen when, like an electric shock, comes the sharp staccato of the click. There is no mistaking it; no tide rip here. And see! Look! The line stiffens, straightens out like a wire, trembles a second, throwing the water in crystal drops, and then the gave is given the butt, and the reel screams, high and low, as the unknown jerks the line away in long and splendid bursts of speed.

There is always the thought that it may be a shark or a ray or some not desired vermin, but you have taken the amber jack before and its sturdy cousin of the California island, and there is no mistake about it.

Springing to your feet, with the butt of the rod firmly in the leather socket around your waist, you see what a game fish can do, what splendid strength he brings into play as he races away, dragging the line from beneath your thumb and the heavy brake, seemingly playing with it.

Fifty, 100, 200 feet of line slip away before the fish is stopped, and then it appears to strike heavy, determined blows at the rod, sweeping around in a splendid half circle, the line cutting the water and the fish rising with a peculiar motion.

Amber jacks have been hooked here that no man could stop. In the language of the boatman, "they simply walked away with the line," then when the end came never stopped, and there is seemingly no limit to the powers of this fellow.

The angler has a start, the thumb brake of leather stops the run, and the big reel begins the pitiless work, and while the jack races he is insensibly coming in all the time. More than once he realizes this and plunges down and if the water is deep enough sulks and bores like a salmon and with ten times its force. But the water is comparatively shallow, and the game can only break away and dash off fifty feet, to be checked again and again. But it never really surrenders, never really discovers that it is in the toils. Like its cousin, the California yellowtail, it fights until it is in the boat, and even then I have seen a fish double and send itself whirling out of a barrel into the freedom of the sea.

The angler can now see the jack as it races around the boat, and the black boatman fingers his gaff ready to give it the quietus. Nearly thirty minutes have slipped away, and the attempts of the oarsman to keep the angler stern first to the fish and the powerful rushes have carried the boat out from shore where the fish has plenty of water. The man at the rod begins to feel that he has earned his fish. In boxing, fencing or broadsword play there is a "let up," time for rest, but in this duel with the amber jack it is all one round, and arms and fingers are stiff and ache. Pressing the thumb on a leather pad for half an hour, holding a stiff rod in one position is deadly, and the amber jack appears to have taken his second wind. Perhaps there is a third wind for amber jack, as, suddenly, when coursing along at the surface, he apparently sees the boat and goes crazy, plunging down to the mad acclaim of the reel, tearing off the hardly won line and carrying despair into the angler's soul.

But this is the beginning of the end, and, holding the rod and line firmly, the angler dips the point to the surface and lifts, "mans the pumps," lifts for all he is worth, gains three feet on the sulker, then, dropping the tip, reels rapidly, and so, ever repeating the trick—the only remedy when fishes will sulk—he regains his lost line and has the splendid fish in sight again. There is a flash of silver, yellow and green, a display of surface below the resilient rod, then the reel works it on the quarter, and as the patch of color surges hissing along the negro gaffer drops his weapon quietly, skillfully under the fish and lifts him just under the gills, holds him firmly for a moment while the spray and spume fly. Then, depressing the rail, he slides the gallant fighter in, where he hammers the bottom as the angler perchance swings his hat to some distant and less fortunate friend still at anchor. These are the moments of joy in the life of the angler, and surely life is not a failure along the gulf stream and is worth living.—Forest and Stream.

Wonders of Chess.

Edwin Anthony in an article published in the Chess Players' Chronicle computed approximately that the number of ways of playing only the first ten moves on each side is 169,518,829,100,544,000,000,000,000,000.

Perfect Womanhood

The greatest menace to woman's permanent happiness in life is the suffering that comes from some derangement of the feminine organs.

Many thousands of women have realized this too late to save their health, barely in time to save their lives.

To be a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, should be a woman's constant study.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has backache, headache, bearing-down sensations, nervousness, irregularities or the "blues," she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as

It cures Female Complaints, such as Dragging Sensations, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and all Organic Diseases, and is invaluable in the Change of Life. It dissolves and Expels Tumors at an early stage. Subdues Faintness, Nervous Prostration, Exhaustion, and strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache, General Debility, Indigestion, and invigorates the whole female sysem. It is an excellent remedy for derangements of the Kidneys in either sex.

Letter to T. F. McBeath, Gainesville, Fla.

Dear Sir: We should like to set your boys and girls at work on this question in arithmetic and casuistry:

A farmer is fatting three hogs in three small pens: they have equal room and straw and care, and are fed in these three ways; first hog, on a certain proportion of milk and cooked cornmeal; second hog, on the same, half water, third hog, on the same, half water and sawdust. How long will it take, how much will they weigh, how much will they cost, and what'll the profit be on the three?

And a similar question in pigmentry. That same farmer is going to paint three barns same size; and he says to three painters: "what'll you take to paint that barn?"

First painter scratches his head a few minutes and says: "I'l do it for $50."

Second painter: "$75."

Third painter: "$97.48."

Will they each get a barn to paint, or one get two, or one all three, or nobody any; and what'll they make on the job?

That's about how painting goes sometimes.

But there is a way to reckon: $5 a gallon. The difficulty is in knowing how many gallons to buy. There's a way out of that.

Buy the least-gallons paint, Devoe. No matter how much one buys; he returns what's left: costs nothing.

Yours truly,

BLOOD POISON

CURE YOURSELF AT HOME

Contagious Blood Poison begins in the most insignificant way, and with less evidence of what is to follow, than any other disease. The first symptom is usually a little sore or blister, whose appearance does not indicate that deeper down, in the blood, a treacherous and deadly poison has found its way to corrupt and vitiate the entire circulation, and later to disease the body with the most loathsome and hateful symptoms. Unless one has experienced or witnessed the terrible results of Contagious Blood Poison, no idea of its effects can be formed.

When the blood has become fully inoculated with the virus, the mouth and throat ulcerate; glands in the neck and groin swell, and sometimes burst, forming ulcers; the hair comes out; copper colored spots appear on the body; and where the disease is allowed to remain in the system it penetrates deeper and deeper, until it affects the bones, causing them to decay, and makes a complete physical wreck of its unfortunate victim.

Not only the first one who contracts the disease must suffer, but it is transmitted through the blood from generation to generation, and innocent lives are blighted and diseased by this monster poison. No other disease is so highly contagious as blood poison; in the most trivial manner it may be contracted by innocent persons. Many have been inoculated with the virus, and suffered the disastrous and destructive effects of the poison, by a friendly handshake, or by using the same tableware or toilet articles, or handling the clothing of an infected person.

I was treated for two years by blood specialists, who treated me with mercury for Blood Poison, with no good results, so I gave them up and started to use S. S. S. When I commenced its use I was covered with sores and eruptions, and was very weak and run-down. Today, I am myself again, and my skin is as clear as a baby's. I know it made a positive cure for me of Blood Poison in the very worst form, and I am making it my business to have my friends use it as I did, and already two of them are having wonderful results in the way of a cure.

I am, today, a living testimonial to the value of S. S. S. in cases of advanced Blood Poison.

HARRY BARRETT,
424 West North Avenue. Chicago, Ill.

Strong mineral medicines like mercury and potash are often given to cure Contagious Blood Poison, but years of failure have proven that such treatment cannot cure the trouble. These medicines can only mask or shut the disease up in the system for awhile; as soon as they are left off the symptoms return in all their hideousness, and the sufferer finds he has wasted valuable time, and, in addition, ruined his health with these harmful drugs.

S. S. S. is the antidote for Contagious Blood Poison—the only remedy that is able to get at the root of the disease and force out every particle of the poison, so that there are never any signs of its return. It can be used and a perfect cure of the disease made in the privacy of your own home. Sufferers from this disease can be their own doctors, and the forty years of cures made by this remedy assures them that the treatment is in every respect the proper one, and that its use, together with any suggestions as to local treatment, which will be furnished by our physicians free of charge, will cure the trouble permanently and privately. S. S. S. is made entirely of purifying, healing roots, herbs and barks. We offer a reward of $1,000 for proof that it contains a particle of mineral in any form. S. S. S. goes down to the very root of the trouble, and by driving out the last trace of the poison, and making the blood pure and strong, cures the disease thoroughly and with certainty. S. S. S. will also remove the effects of any mineral treatment that may have been previously used.

S.S.S.

It contains instructions for the different stages of the disease, and also advice about the local treatment that will be the most helpful in effecting a cure. This book, together with any special medical advice desired, will be sent free by our physicians, to all who write.

Just Because

Your cough is only in the throat and does not trouble you now, don't think that it needs no attention. When it has not had much of a start is the time to check it. The slightest cough easily leads to pneumonia, bronchitis and consumption. A bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will cure that cough. The price puts it within reach of all. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Branen Trial Progresses.

Statesboro, Ga., April 27.—In the trial here of Erastus Brannen, who is charged with the murder of Jack Ellis, the state has closed. The legal battle between J. J. Anderson and Judge Twiggs, for the state, and Judge Hines, of Atlanta, for the defense, promises to prove the greatest contest of the kind ever held in this section of the state.

Negroes Leave for California.

Americus, Ga., April 27.—The emigration of negroes from Americus and neighboring territory to Southern California may determine the race problem here to a limited extent. Recently half a hundred Americus negroes have departed for Los Angeles, and encouraging letters of conditions prevailing there are inducing others to go.
